DirectEmployers Association (DE) is part of the NACElink Network,* and represents nearly 500 organizations—including many Fortune 500 and other high-profile employers—that are focused on building strong work forces.

DE supports college recruiting through NACElink: Its members post entry-level job opportunities through NACElink, adding thousands of jobs to those posted by other organizations to NACElink participating schools.

Added Value for NACElink Schools Extended Job Search: Seamless access to millions of jobs for current students and alumni

As a NACElink participating school, you can bring millions of job opportunities not only to your current students, but you can provide the same kind of service for your alumni as well.

How? Through NACElink Extended Job Search, provided by DE.

Because DE employers are interested in potential employees at all levels of experience, NACElink Extended Job Search offers more than six million job opportunities, aggregated from employer web sites and other job boards, including results from Google™, Simply Hired®, and Indeed™.
